Come Follow Me: John 7-10

Ward Goals

"And after they had been received unto baptism, and were wrought upon and cleansed by the power of the Holy Ghost, they were numbered among the people of the church of Christ; and their names were taken, that they might be remembered and nourished by the good word of God, to keep them in the right way, to keep them continually watchful unto prayer, relying alone upon the merits of Christ, who was the author and the finisher of their faith." (Moroni 6:4)

During individual and family prayer, pray about the people to whom you minister, including nonmembers. Pray for them by name, one by one. Counsel weekly in our homes regarding their physical and spiritual needs, one by one. Share a scripture that touched you, work together on family history, perform an act of kindness; whatever will bring them closer to the temple and to Christ.

Jesus is the Good Shepherd

Dear Friends,

For our Sacrament meeting theme today, the bishopric has chosen Jesus' teaching in John 10:11 that He "is the good shepherd." And so, for our prelude and postlude, I'm planning to play arrangements of hymns based on the 23rd Psalm, which Jesus was alluding to in John 10; which prophetically describes Jesus' mission and ministry; and which begins, "The Lord is my Shepherd."

The first prelude, which will begin at 8:50, is a famous Scottish hymn written by James Leith Bain and known as "Brother James' Air." I'll be playing an arrangement by the late master organist, Dale Wood. Here are some of the lyrics which, as you can see, are simply an adaptation of the words of the Psalm:

The Lord's my Shepherd, I'll not want.
He makes me down to lie
In pastures green; He leadeth me
The quiet waters by.
He leadeth me, He leadeth me,
the quiet waters by.

My soul He doth restore again;
And me to walk doth make
Within the paths of righteousness,
Ee'n for His own Name's sake.
Within the paths of righteousness,
Ee'n for His own Name's sake.

Yea, though I pass through death's shadows,
Yet will I fear no ill;
For Thou art with me; and Thy rod
And staff me comfort still.
Thy rod and staff they comfort still
They comfort still.

Goodness and mercy all my days
Will surely follow me;
And in my father's heart always
My dwelling place shall be.

I love the truth taught in the final stanza: that, assuming we make and keep the covenants Jesus lovingly offers us, we'll be able to dwell forever in His "father's heart" – with Him and our families.

Jesus is the Good Shepherd

The second prelude will be Robert Manookin's arrangement of our LDS hymn No. 108, "The Lord is my Shepherd." The lyrics are another paraphrase of the 23rd Psalm, this time by James Montgomery, who published them in 1822. Notice how the second verse, in particular, adds to our understanding of the need for and blessings of trusting in the Savior to help us overcome temptations and other afflictions:

Thru the valley and shadow of death though I stray,
Since thou art my Guardian, no evil I fear.
Thy rod shall defend me, thy staff be my stay.
No harm can befall with my Comforter near.
No harm can befall with my Comforter near.

The postlude will be a piece by the famous German/English composer George Friedrich Handel called "Arioso." The lyrics to this old German hymn not only allude to Jesus' role as our divine shepherd, but they also talk specifically about the Lord's delivering ancient Israel by parting the Red Sea--a wonderful symbol of baptism and, in turn, of Jesus' power to deliver us from sin:

Thanks be to Thee!
Thanks be to Thee!
Thou hast led forth with mighty hand
Thy people Israel, safe through the sea.

Lord, thou hast led as a shepherd with Thine hand;
Lord, thine hand tenderly in ages past
Thy people hath led.

Thanks be to Thee!
Thanks be to Thee!
Thou hast led forth with mighty hand
Thy people Israel, safe through the sea!

As you ponder these hymns and other sacred songs, see if you can feel the testimonies of the authors (and your organist) of Jesus' role as our "good shepherd."

And by the way, if you have a favorite hymn or other sacred piece that you'd like me to play on a future Sunday, please email me at organist@gmail.com, and I'll do my best to accommodate your request.

Warm regards to all,

Clayton

PRESIDENCY MESSAGE

2020-2022 was rough for me, as it was for many of us. Our family went through unexpected loss, moved during the height of Covid, my husband deployed and I felt very alone. I couldn't find my way out of feeling sad, overwhelmed, and like a total failure. No matter how hard I tried, I kept failing my kids, my spouse, my Heavenly Father, I just wasn't enough. Then on the advice of a great therapist, I developed a mantra, "I am intentionally created. I am loved here and now." I was supposed to say this to myself every morning and every night, it didn't matter whether I believed it or felt it, I needed to hear those words every day. I'll admit at first I felt silly, but saying it forced me to think about the statement and then I started to believe those words. I started to believe that I was truly created for a purpose. Heavenly Father didn't pull me out of a box of spirits and send me to Earth on a conveyor belt. He knew me, created me, and loves me. I didn't need to change or become a better version of myself to be worthy of His love, I was worthy of it now. I learned a lot from that exercise, including how powerful words can be. The people who followed Christ during His time on earth did so because of His words. His words made them feel hope, love, and forgiveness. When they listened and believed His words, their lives were changed. What we say to ourselves and others can sometimes feel so inconsequential but it is so powerful. We each hold the power within ourselves to feel His love. We cannot grow and progress if we don't believe we can. I am grateful for that short time in my life where it felt like I hit rock bottom, it forced me to look up and see what Heavenly Father sees in me and what he sees in each one of us. We are all intentionally created by an all-knowing and perfect God. There is no version of you that Heavenly Father loves more, He loves you here and now.
